CAUSED A SENSATION. DRILLING FOR OIL.

Chief Hager, of Louisville, Kentucky, has been elected to the office of Mayor of Louisville, Ky., July 12.—A sensation was caused Thursday by the announcement that Chief of Police John H. Hager has decided to tender his resignation to the board of public safety. Chief Hager has not yet announced his reasons, but will make a statement when he officially resigns the board of his action. The resignation, however, is undoubtedly due to the result of the recent primary in this race Hager was a supporter of Mr. Jefferson, who was defeated for the nomination for mayor.

During the primary campaign Hager was inspired by the Louisville followers to change, but steadfastly refused. He was appointed chief after the election of Mayor Weaver in 1917. Previous to that he had been through the positions of chief of police, captain and chief of detectives. Before entering the police department he was a printer. There was a rumor that Chief Hager would accept employment with the Louisville Police agency, but Hager denies this.

THESEVERE HOT SPELL THE GREAT STRUGGLE.

Warm Weather Continues in Several of the States.

From Present Apperances It Looks Probable That Another Strike Order Will Be Issued by the N. M. A.

Washington, July 12.—Reports to the weather bureau show that the weather continued Sunday in 19 states and territories of the great central, the Ohio valley, and various portions of the south. There seems to be no immediate evidence of abatement, except in the northwest, where local thunderstorms may cause some contradiction. The states affected include Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, Colorado, and Michigan. It has become considerably warmer Sunday, a record-breaking temperature of 102 degrees. Hope of rain Sunday in the region affected by the heat was not fulfilled, and the possibility of appearing on or two more days, except at Galveston, Tex., where one-third of an inch fell, and a east-erly breeze, where there were local showers. The temperature reported Sunday was only slight variation from the extremes of the past few days and was due to local conditions entirely. In the Missouri, Sunday the temperature was 102 degrees, and in the Ohio valley, it was 102 degrees. In the Ohio valley, it was 102 degrees. In the Ohio valley, it was 102 degrees.
